Chapter 92 — Animals

Article I — Animal Control

Appendix

Article I — Animal Control

§ 92-101   Running at Large.

It shall be unlawful for any person, whether the owner or person in possession or in control of any animals in the Borough of Alburtis, to permit the running at large upon the streets, alleys, parks, or squares of the Borough of any such animal or animals owned by, in possession of, or under the control of the said owner or person.

§ 92-102   Fowl.

It shall be unlawful for any person to permit poultry, chickens, ducks, geese or other barnyard or domestic fowl to run at large upon the streets, lanes or alleys of the Borough of Alburtis or upon lands not in possession of the owner of said poultry, chickens, ducks, geese or other barnyard or domestic fowl.

§ 92-103   Seizure and Disposition of Animals Running at Large.

All animals running at large upon the streets, alleys, parks or squares in violation of § 92-102 or § 92-103 shall be subject to seizure under direction of the Mayor, and such animals seized shall be disposed of by sale for the benefit of the Borough or turned over to a humane society for disposition as it deems fit.

§ 92-104   Dog Retention Fee.

The fee, payable to the Borough, for retaining a dog shall be Fifteen Dollars ($15.00).

§ 92-105   Leashing of Animals.

No domestic animals shall be permitted upon the streets, alleys, parks, or squares of the Borough unless under leash and accompanied by a person who shall prevent the annoyance of the traveling public by such domestic animal or animals.

§ 92-106   Defecation of Animals.

It shall be unlawful for the owner of any animal, or any person having the care, custody, or control of any animal, to permit the same to discharge or deposit any fecal matter upon the property of another without immediately removing said matter and disposing of it in a sanitary manner. For purposes of this Section, the term "property of another" shall include, without limitation, property owned by private individuals, entities, or associations, and property owned by the Borough of Alburtis and other governmental entities.

§ 92-107   Violations and Penalties.

Any person who violates any provision of this Article shall, upon being found liable therefor in a civil enforcement proceeding commenced by the Borough, pay a judgment of not more than Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00), in the discretion of the District Magistrate, plus all court costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the Borough as a result thereof. Nothing contained in this Section shall be construed or interpreted to grant to any person or entity, other than the Borough, the right to commence any action for enforcement of any provision of this Article.
